The Church Shop

The church shop provides a wide selection of Mass / Sympathy Cards and Cards for every conceivable occasion. Some of these items are available from stands/tables near porches for you to browse at your leisure. The friendly team of parishioners who run the shop would also be delighted to help you select the perfect item for you or a loved one. Also Catholic newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, Children's books and Bibles etc. Why not have a look - keeping God in every event.
Open: After Saturday evening Mass and after all Sunday morning Masses.

Parish Twinning

Our Twinning Group is our parish's aid to the Diocese of Yola in NE Nigeria. Fathers Christopher and Fidelis, who are with us in the parish, are from that Diocese. Over the last few years our charity has supported the building of a primary school and the boring of a water hole which has transformed the lives of the people in the particular parish, Jangbunu, with which we are twinned. Further projects under consideration are solar panels (as they have no electricity) and three additional classrooms. Bishop Stephen Dami Mamza (who also served in our Pastoral Area before his appointment as Bishop) was in Ireland recently and reviewed progress with the Twinning Committee. The Committee thank you for your continued support for the weekly 300 Club Draw and wish you a happy and peaceful Easter.

Parish Webcam

Masses, including funerals, and baptisms in the Church can be viewed on the Parish Website. This can be very consoling, particularly when family members who are abroad cannot be present at a funeral.

Coeliac Hosts

Parishioners are reminded that gluten-free hosts are always available at all Masses.
